FROM THE MEMBERS - MORE SHELF SPACE

What do you do when you need more shelf space? Peter Klages of Garching, Germany had an easy answer. He got a new bookcase for his office. He got a large and very attractive bookcase for his Kennedy books. And he customized it as well:

Using mahogany, he stained the letters a darker color so that they would show up on the top of the bookcase. He did a superb job and they stand out perfectly. Note the precise spacing of the letters which makes them very easy to read. The bookcase is right behind his "Resolute Desk", a copy made from JFK's original.
